

Eagan, McAllister Associates, Inc. (EMA) began its operations in 1984 with one contract; two employees, co-founders Rex Eagan and John McAllister; and one small office near NAS Patuxent River in Lexington Park, Maryland, according to their corporate website.

In December 2003, EMA was acquired by AMSEC LLC, a full service supplier to the commercial and Navy maritime industry. AMSEC LLC was formed in June 1999 as a business partnership between Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) and Newport News Shipbuilding (NNS). In July 2007, EMA became a wholly-owned subsidiary of SAIC and ended its partnership with AMSEC, according to their corporate website.

External links

- EMA Corporate Website